

Wedding receptions is our specialty because the owner Jonathan Michael Roth loves working weddings. Jonathan acts as the Master of Ceremonies, Reception Director & Disc Jockey. The interaction with the guests, the wide range of ages and variety of music makes for a special event. The attention to details in the coordination of the formalities with the wedding party and the other wedding vendors makes weddings something a professional can make look easy and flowing. This way the bride and groom can enjoy their reception too.